

Art in the Hall

Come check out the latest Art in the Hall display at Erin Town Hall! This season's theme was Metamorphosis, and our local artists did not disappoint.

See Helena Wehrstein's mixed media take on the theme with UNPLUGGED and TAKING OVER, both pieces deliver salient messages at the forefront of society today. Get swept away in the dynamic brushstrokes of Katarina Wramhed-Persson's abstract works and enjoy the beautiful winter scene painted by Ilana Miller. Susan Powell painted a monochromatic green piece called Wetland Man, and a unique sketch called Tool Transformation.

Sue Gilbert has also painted a beautiful work depicting all four seasons.

Be sure to check out the display next time you're at Town Hall.

Prices for each art piece are listed on a tag beneath them.

See you at the Erin Lions Club Santa Claus Parade!

Town of Erin staff are preparing their float for the Erin Lions Club Santa Claus Parade this weekend. This year's theme is Christmas Around the World and Erin's float will be celebrating a variety of countries and cultures that get into the Christmas spirit. Come see the float in the parade as it travels through Erin village on Saturday Nov. 30, starting at 11 a.m.
